

ARTIST: Christy Ringrose
TITLE: Family Grave
LYRICS
Acapella

She digs a hole in the dry dirt of an old family grave
Brings plenty of water cause it's such a sunny day
Admire the flowers though some of the petals are falling away
They'll grow and blossom here in this family grave

He was ready to go the day he died
Believed in Jesus and eternal life
His dog died with him and it was just as well
Cause he would have missed him as if it was himself

He had no wife or children to carry his name
Lived a simple life, curious and tame. But..

*He knew the song of every bird
And kept a note of every note in his notepad
Are there things we might have known
That we may never know?*

She brings flowers
She brings her time
She brings her gardening skills
She is full of life
She is full of life